APPOMATTOX COUNTY LIBRARY NEWS

The Library wishes to thank Mrs. Janet Noble for a donation of lovely books, the names of which are listed below: 10 - National Geographic Society books: Primitive worlds: people lost in time, The wild shores: America's beginning, America's wonderlands: National Parks, The Appalachian Trial, America's Inland waterways, America's Deserts, America's Mountain People, Life in Rural America, Wild animals of North America, The Alps.

Moss, James - Flags of the United States; Heal, Edith - Robin Hood, Botkin, B.A. American Folklore, Bach, Richard - Jonathan Livingston Seagull, Witman, Mabel - The Golden Book of Flowers,Reader's Digest - Great Lives, Great Deeds, Life Book of Christmas 3 Volumes - The Glory of Christmas, The Pageantry of Christmas, The Merriment of Christmas. 10-Reader's Digest condensed books, Illustrated catalogue of the Egyptian Museum.

51-Paperback books by authors we all know such as Earle Stanley Gardner, Mignon G. Eberhart, Helen MacInnes, Georgette Heyer, Faith Baldwin and others.

A suggestion was made at a recent meeting of the Friends of the Library that volunteers take books to Nursing Homes in the county. Some elderly people who can't see to read well, can enjoy colorful pictures so these National Geograpic Society books would be ideal for them. Let's have more volunteers during the next six weeks of winter, since Mr. Groundhog will most certainly see his shadow today.

Of Interest To Veterans

Most of the annual income questionnaires mailed with November 1975 Veterans Administration pension checks have been returned, but VA officials expressed concern that some pensioners missed the January 1 deadline.

Those who failed to return the income information by Jan. 1 face delay or interruption in pension checks, the Roanoke VA Regional Office emphasized.

Under the law, the VA mails questionnaires each year to veterans and widows with nonservice-connected disabilities. Also governed by annual income are amounts of dependency and indemnity compensation payments to certain parents of veterans who died of service-connected causes.

Pensioners who are 72 years of age or older and who have been on the VA rolls during the last two years generally are exempt from filing. However, they must report income changes as they occur. Some beneficiaries who normally are exempt received questionnaires this year because of cost-of-living increases in annuities.

Full information on pensions and the income questionnaire is available at local VA regional offices or veterans service organizations.

Forming Of Catholic Parish Discussed

The Appomattox - Concord Catholic community is continuing to grow. The Mass and covered dish supper on January 27 drew the largest gathering so far. And for good reason.

Bishop Sullivan from the Archdiocese of Richmond shared in the discussion on the formation of a new parish in this area.

Mary Graf presented a brief summary of community activities and answered questions on the organizational structure of the church board. During the open discussion that followed, Bishop Sullivan recognized the needs of the community. Bishop Sullivan, Fr. Ferry, pastor of Holy Cross in Lynchburg, and Fr. Dumminger, Pastor of St. Theresa's in Farmville all pledged their support.

Bishop Sullivan suggested that the structure of the church develop as the activities and needs of the community grow and expand. Initially he would help arrange to celebrate Mass on a weekly basis instead of bi-monthly as is now done. More will be heard on these developments in the next few weeks.

A calendar of events for the month of February is as follows:

February 7 - Bake sale to be held in front of Revco Drug Store at 9:00. The bake sale is sponsored by the Youth Group of the Church.

February 10 and 24 - Mass to be held at 6:45 in the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church on Oakleigh Avenue.

February 18 - Morning Bible Study at Ann Harris' In Bent Creek. Anyone wishing to go and not knowing the directions can meet at 9:30 in the Wilburn's parking lot. The Bible Study meeting starts at 10:00.

Share in the excitement, you are invited to join the group.

At this time the Appomattox-Concord Catholics would like to express a word of thanks to the many people and local churches who have helped bring our little community together and made the coming events possible. God bless you all!

Bill Shorter, #40 goes up for a shot. His shot is blocked by #52, but not a clean block as a foul was called against Amherst.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN AUSTIN

Raiders Win Twice

If you are confused with the headline, Raiders Win Twice, don't be. The controversy came with 1 second showing on the clock as Ronald Harvey from 15 ft. out sent the ball soaring for the hoop. As the ball went through the net, for what the Raider fans thought to be the winning point, the officials ruled no good. The crowds had already ran to the court to congratulate the Raiders for their victory. Some of the Raiders had even started for the showers as they were called back to play overtime.

The Raiders, even more determined to win played with all they had. Ennoch Robinson along with Bill Shorter and Ronald Harvey teamed together to make 7 for 8 at the foul line. Ronald Harvey was the man to put the icing on the cake with his winning foul shot at the end.

Ennoch Robinson was high scorer and rebounder of the evening having 15 pts. and 20 rebounds.

David Kelso had a good night at the boards with 12 pts. Nowlin Waugh with 19 pts. claimed high scoring honors for Amherst.

From the floor the Raiders shot 42% compared to 39% for Amherst.

The Raiders shot 62% at the foul line with Amherst shooting 52%.

In my opinion this game was the Most exciting game of the season thus far and clearly showed a 100% team effort of the Raiders. Never the less the Raiders made a fine showing on the court and were victorious over Amherst 56 -55.

Raiderettes 12 - 0

The Raiderettes, after a close 37-34 victory over Amherst, now stand with a flawless record of 12-0.

The Raiderettes got off to a bad start as they trailed Amherst by 3 points. At halftime the Raiderettes were still having offensive problems with the score being Amherst 20, Raiderettes 16. In the last minutes of the game the Raiderettes came to life and with a strong cheering section gained a three point lead to claim their 12th victory.

Maryjane Smith took scoring honors with 12 markers and Connie Murry close behind with 9.

Amherst had two girls in double figures, Wanda Jane, 10 and Wanda Hurt, with 14.

Amherst had a bad night at the foul line with 0% while the Raiderettes ended 9 for 19 or 47%.

There was only 1% difference from the field as the Raiderettes shot 28% and Amherst 29%. This again shows the importance of accuracy at the foul line.

Maryjane, also led the Raiderettes in rebounds, having 13.

Sport fans, if you missed this game, you really missed seeing an exciting game. The Raiderettes always seem to come through even if at times it seems hopeless. Your support means a lot to them. See you at the next Raiderette game.

Raiderettes Squeeze Victory

The Raiderettes and Altavista battled back and forth and at the last minutes of the game the Raiderettes seized victory 27-26.

Maryjane Smith was high scorer for the Raiderettes having 15 points. Ginger Elder led Altavista in scoring having 10.

The Raiderettes were 5 for 12 at the foul line as Altavista had a 100% at the line. The Raiderettes were 28% from the floor.

The Colonels shot 55% at the line and shot 39% from the field.

Raiders 54 Colonels 65

Altavista was named the victor with the exact same score in which they beat the Raiders at the beginning of the season.

David Kelso, with 16 points and Ennoch Robinson with 14 points, along with Mitch Eggleston, 10 points, were the three top scorers for the Raiders.

The Poindexter brothers, Tracey and Terry, teamed together with 19 and 17 points to lead Altavista in scoring.

The Raiders were 63% from the floor.
